

General Terms and Conditions

Participation in social media competitions by "Krone Erzberg Adventure Days"

1. General information

The organiser of the competition is TIQA Werbe- und Marketing GmbH, Fischergasse 12, 8700 Leoben and is hereinafter referred to as "the organiser". By participating in the competition, the participant agrees to the following conditions of participation. Participants who violate these conditions of participation, use unauthorised aids or otherwise seek to gain an advantage through manipulation will be excluded from participation.

1. This competition is in no way connected to Facebook and is in no way sponsored, supported or organised by Facebook. All questions, comments or complaints regarding the competition should be directed exclusively to the organiser and not to Facebook. The organiser releases Facebook from all liability claims in relation to the competition.
2. TIQA Werbe- und Marketing GmbH is exclusively responsible for the organisation, processing, provision of prizes and distribution of prizes. The organisers' decision is final; no cash redemption possible.
3. All references to persons and functions used in these conditions of participation in the masculine form also apply to the feminine and diverse form.

2. Eligibility to participate

1. Natural persons who are at least 14 years old at the time of participation are eligible to participate.
2. Participation is only possible once per person.
3. If special rules regarding participation apply to a competition, these will be stated in the competition post.

3. Prize

1. The prize will be defined in the respective competition post.
2. If it is a draw for a starting place, the winner will receive a voucher code that can be redeemed during the online registration process. This voucher code is not personalised and is therefore transferable to other natural persons. If the winner is already registered for a "Krone Erzberg Adventure Days" competition at the time of participation, the entry fee already paid will not be refunded. Voucher codes for starting places are only valid for the competitions of the "Krone Erzberg Adventure Days" that are open for registration at the time of the competition and can therefore not be used in the following year. The T&Cs and participation requirements (minimum age, etc.) of the respective competitions apply.

3. Competition procedure

1. The time frame (date, time) of the competition will be stated in the competition post.
2. Any actions required (e.g. commenting on the competition post, liking the Facebook page, etc.) in order to participate in the competition will be stated in the competition post.

3. Unless other details have been provided regarding the determining of the winner (e.g. voting among users – the photo with the most "likes" wins), the draw will be carried out randomly by the organiser's social media team and will take place after the end of the competition period.
4. The winners will be notified by message, unless otherwise stated in the competition post.

5. Acceptance of the prize

1. Entitlement to the prize arises exclusively upon receipt of the written notification of the prize.
2. The winner must accept the prize within 7 working days by responding in writing to the prize notification. If the prize is not accepted within this period, the claim to the prize will lapse and the prize will be raffled once more among the remaining participants, at the organiser's discretion and if time permits. Upon expiry of this deadline, the first winner drawn is no longer entitled to his prize.

6. Publications

1. The winner gives his express permission for the organiser to publish him as the winner of the competition, stating his name, on the organiser's social media channels as well as on the website www.erzbergsport.at.

7. Disruptions in the process; liability

1. The organiser reserves the right to cancel or terminate the competition at any time without prior notice and without providing reasons.
2. The organiser has the right to exclude participants from the competition who manipulate or attempt to manipulate the participation process or the competition and/or who violate the rules of the game. This also applies to participants who provide false information about themselves. If comments are suspected to be spam or offensive or threatening comments, the organiser reserves the right to delete the comment in question and exclude the sender from the competition.
3. The organiser assumes no liability for the proper functioning of the websites on which the competition is offered at all times, and in particular for any overloading of the social media channels.

8. Responsibility for the content and exemption from liability

1. The participant undertakes not to upload any photos or texts that violate the copyrights, personal rights or trademark rights of third parties or that violate competition law or other laws. Furthermore, he undertakes to respect the right to one's own image and texts and not to upload any texts from persons who have not given him their express consent. In this respect, the legal responsibility lies exclusively with the participant.
2. In the event of an intentional or grossly negligent violation of paragraph 1, the participant shall indemnify the organiser against all claims of any kind asserted by third parties due to legal infringements based on the content published by the participant in the context of the competition. This applies expressly and without limitation to claims arising from copyright or trademark infringements, infringements of competition law or infringements of general personal rights or the right to one's own image and text.

9. Declaration of consent under data protection law

1. If the use of the services requires the storage of personal data (for example participation in competitions), the organiser processes the data provided by the user in order to fulfil the services used by the user.
2. The organiser shall take all reasonable technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of personal data.
3. If data is collected from participants by the organiser, it will only be used for the design, implementation and processing of the competition and will not be used for advertising purposes.
4. Every participant is entitled to withdraw his participation in the competition from the organiser at any time (by sending an email to info@tiqa.at) and to request information in writing about his personal data stored by us and any recipients. The organiser is also obliged to correct, block or delete the data stored about the participant at the participant's request, unless other statutory regulations (e.g. statutory retention obligations) prevent this.

10. Final provisions

1. The competition is subject to Austrian law. The place of jurisdiction is Leoben.
2. Should individual provisions within these conditions of participation be or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.
